

Lancashire Association of Local Councils

Spring Conference 2019, Saturday 15 June

Hallmark Leyland Hotel, Junction 28 M6 Motorway
9.30a.m. - 4.45p.m.

Members £35

Non-Members £45

The Programme will include;

Update on National Matters Jonathan Owen, Chairman, National Association of Local Councils

Presentation on the Colne Blues festival and its organisation

Lunch in the Restaurant

Guide Dogs – to be confirmed

Report on the Community Champion pilot which aims to have volunteers in uniform around villages and is organised by the Lancashire Volunteer Partnership in conjunction with the Police and Crime Commissioners department.

The Hallmark Leyland Hotel is a popular venue being so accessible from all areas, giving the opportunity to councillors and clerks to meet and exchange ideas in comfortable surroundings.